

The Partners of Wormald Masse Keen Lopinski LLP would like to introduce Ryan O'Sullivan, CPA, CA, Christy Holland, CPA, CA and Greg Angelone, CPA, CA as new partners into the firm effective January 1, 2022.

Ryan O'Sullivan began his career in public accounting in 2007 as a Co-op student and qualified as a Chartered Accountant in 2012 after receiving his Bachelor of Accounting Degree with First Class Honours from Brock University. Ryan provides accounting, assurance, tax, estate planning and advisory services to a broad range of mainly owner-managed businesses. Ryan is a lifelong St. Catharines resident and stays active by enjoying hockey, golf, and time outdoors with his growing family.

Christy Holland graduated from Laurier University in 2009 with a Bachelor of Arts in Economics and obtained the designation of Chartered Accountant in 2011. Her career in public accounting began as a co-op at Laurier in 2006. After a few years of working in public accounting, she spent some time working in industry in a Tax Manager position. In August 2016, Christy resumed her career in public accounting and joined WMKL as Tax Manager. In 2012, Christy completed the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants' In-Depth Taxation course and is a member of the Canadian Tax Foundation. As a Tax Partner, Christy provides corporate, personal and compliance services with a focus on owner-managed private corporations and estate planning for individuals and small businesses. Christy grew up in the GTA, but currently resides in Port Robinson where she enjoys playing volleyball, traveling to Buffalo to cheer on the Bills, spending time with her family and friends, and raising her dogs. Christy would like to thank her spouse Wayne for his continued support and for picking up the slack at home during the long hours of tax busy season.

Greg Angelone began his career in public accounting with the firm in 2005 as a Co-op student and qualified as a Chartered Accountant in June 2009 after receiving his Honours Bachelor of Accounting degree from Brock University. Greg manages a diverse client base comprised mainly of owner-managed businesses providing tax, audit, accounting and financial planning services. He has extensive knowledge and experience with retail operations. In his spare time Greg enjoys spending time with his family and is active in many sports including hockey and golf. Greg would like to thank his spouse Megan and the rest of his family for their continued support throughout his professional career.
